CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

5:22,23

This month's coloured attachment scripture is Galatians

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Against such things there is no law”

The Indwelling of The Holy Spirit in believers results in recognisable Christ likeness and producing the Fruit of The Spirit, just as a living tree will bear good produce.

Qualities of Character from the Unction (anointing) of God is produced in people by The Spirit of God, which are called Fruits of The Spirit, of which there are nine recorded gifts and mature with the growth of The Christian.

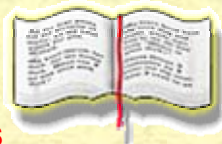

Christian character is not moral discipline trying to do good and living by the law, but because of The Holy Spirit a believer generates the virtues of The Holy Spirit, which are Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness and Self-control. This is a life long process and is a result of divine activity not of any human effort.

The fruit of The Spirit is contrasted with sinful characteristics. Other evidence of the indwelling of The Holy spirit in a believer is righteousness, hope, wisdom and self-restraint in action.

+ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that the survivors of the world-wide flood and their descendants set out to build a tower to reach heaven as a monument to themselves? Humanity started to look for guidance from the stars instead of God. They became proud and wanted for themselves glory and fame at the city of Babel, a godless society (situated near the modern day Bagdad in Iraq). The people of Babel began attempted to control their own destiny excluding God. Instead of the tower reaching heaven, their rebellious act did, so God confused their language and scattered them all over the earth. Babel later became Babylon.

A JANUARY EVENT-Irene Ferrel graduated from the Bible Institute of Los Angeles with a burden for overseas missions and went to the Congo (Zaire), where for 10 years she taught school, shared Christ, and worked in a dispensary in the Kwilu bush. In 1964, Communist rebels mounted guerrilla raids to overthrow the government. Missionaries in the Province were threatened. Irene and her co-worker Ruth Hege decided to evacuate themselves. A helicopter was ordered, and on January 24, 1964, the two prepared to leave then gathered their Congolese workers for a final time of worship, Irene playing the organ. The women began anticipating their ride's arrival which didn't come, and they decided to retire and rise early to await it the next day. Shortly after midnight, young rebels attacked. The youngsters stormed the house, and dragged the women from their beds and danced around them. One youth shot an arrow into Irene's neck and she died. Ruth Hege, also struck by arrows, pretended to be dead. Only after the attackers finally ran into the forest did Ruth crawl to safety. Many other Christians perished during the 1960s Congolese turmoil, including both Protestant and Catholic missionaries.

God Bless.
