- BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that lions abundantly roamed throughout the Holy Lands until the time of the Crusades in the Middle Ages? Hunting lions became the sport of eastern Kings. King Darius of Persia kept a den of lions into which the Old Testament prophet, Daniel was kept overnight.

There is a Colouring In page of Daniel being held in the King Darius' lions den.

A JULY EVENT God frames each person differently, giving each child a unique perspective and personality. George Borrow was born on July 5, 1803, during the age of Napoleon, and his father expected a disciplined son. Instead, George was unstable, meditative with a partiality to run away. He was intrigued by the odd and possessed an insatiable interest about herbalists and fortune-tellers. He picked up languages with remarkable ease and adopted a gypsy life with cart and pony, selling pots and pans. One evening a thief smashed George's head with a rock, and threw his body into the underbrush. Traveling evangelists dragged George to a clearing and attended his cuts. The men gave him some bread and a Bible before going their way. His talented mind soon discovered the Lord. George learned dozens of languages and became a Bible translator. His life was full of breathtaking perils, narrow escapes, imprisonments, and gypsy-like journeys, and his remarkable ministry greatly advanced the cause of European Bible distribution.
