"NEVER BE TIRED OF DOING RIGHT"

Doing right acts is designed to benefit others, which is a characteristic trait of God. Salvation leads to do good works that glorify God. The Holy Spirit enables believers to do good to others. It is better to be doing right than to be idle. A believer should be an example of acting nobly towards those who have no faith, never tiring of doing good, just as did Jesus. Growing tired and exhausted is physical, whereas weariness is a spiritual attitude of fatigue, hampered by impatience or dissatisfaction at excess or overlong continuance often followed by excuses. It is not right however to continue to help those who truly persist in laziness.

Believers should not lose heart in being honest, good and lawful, but continue without weakening. Many grow weary because their action seems not to produce any tangible outcome, but are to persist and trust God for the result. Good works is not a natural characteristic of the sinful nature without getting or expecting a reward. Christians are encouraged to continually do good works for selfless reasons. Good works is a result of true repentance and evidence of God's grace in the lives of believers. Good works are purposed by God for His people.

Opportunities that come to believers are unique prFondly wishing you the JOy of Salvatioivileges, by which they can serve others in Christ's Name, especially their own fellow members of The Kingdom of God. Serving others is the same as serving Christ. Good works are an important fruit in a Christian's life. Believers are not be known as close associates of those who disregard authority and whose actions are a contradiction of the Word of God.

- BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that the second most important person in History is The Apostle Paul? The Risen Christ appeared to Paul, a committed Jew who was a persecutor of Christians in 35 AD. This resulted in Paul's own conversion who then took the message of the Resurrected Jesus to both Jews and Gentiles (non-Jews) living west of the Jewish nation.

There is a character exposition and Colouring In page of Paul's conversion on the road to Damascus

A NOVEMBER EVENT- Robert Raikes was born in Gloucester, England, where his father published the Gloucester Journal. Robert, 22, inherited the newspaper, and immediately used it to crusade for moral reform. One afternoon Robert discovered a slummy suburb of Gloucester. Groups of children surrounded him, and he withdrew back in shock at their fighting, profanity, stench, gambling, and filth. He returned home and conceived a plan for Sunday schools. Such schools had already been tried, but without widespread backing. Robert hired four Christian women to open schools on Sunday because children worked in the factories the other six days of the week, but on Sunday they ran wild. The children in his Sunday schools were taught to read, then they learned the Bible, the Catechism, and other themes. After the schools were clearly working, Robert Raikes used his newspaper to promote them. On November 3, 1783 the article was published. To his surprise, London papers picked up the story and inquiries poured in from across England and The Sunday Schools spread rapidly. Sunday school has changed, yet all ages find their way each week to Sunday school to learn of Christ.

God Bless.
