CHOSEN BIBLICAL Old Testament SCRIPTURE-

This months coloured attachment scripture is 2 Samuel 7:28

" YOU ARE INDEED GOD, YOUR WORKS ARE TRUE"

God and His Work is a trustworthy foundation for Life because He and His Word is utterly reliable, dependable and consistent. God is The Spirit of Truth He does not lie. God's Word contains His promises, His works and the trustworthiness of their Truth. His extraordinary promises are truly irrevocable; they cannot be reversed or annulled. All people are to acknowledge that God can be trusted to fulfil His promises.

God's unique integrity is displayed throughout His Word and is further accentuated totally in Jesus Christ and His works as well as ultimately in the salvation of nations. The Truths of God in His Word are characteristic of Himself.

God can be trusted to fulfil His promises. God's Name is Truth, His quality as One God is Truth, so are His Works. His Works are reliable. God's unique integrity is emphasised by consistent truth in His Works. He is The God of Truth., His true works are in His activity as Judge, as Redeemer, Saviour, Creator, Provider, Gift-giver, Covenant Keeper and Providence Keeper.

CHRIST AS SEEN IN THE BOOK OF 2

SAMUEL

Jesus is The King with an Everlasting Kingdom. David's Monarch Descendant, True Servant of God, King of Jerusalem, of Melchizedek's Kingdom.

BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Judas was never a committed follower of Christ? He was never born of The Spirit and was the son of perdition. Jesus Himself called Judas a devil. Judas except for Satan was the only person to have this term applied to him. After betraying Jesus he only felt remorse for himself and was not repentant toward God.

There is a character study and a colouring in page of Judas receiving payment for his betrayal of Jesus

A SEPTEMBER EVENT-Born about 500 years after Christ, provided family wealth and rank, Gregory became mayor of Rome at 33. He gave his inheritance to the church and the poor, turned his mansion into a monastery, and became a monk. He was consecrated as Pope Gregory I on September 3, 590, and did much good and bad. He had been burdened for the evangelization of England since British boys being sold in the Roman slave markets and sent evangelists to the British Isles. Gregory also appointed competent men as church leaders, and he fought apostasy. He encouraged the many to turn from heresy to mainstream principles. He wrote evangelistic tracts to barbarian tribes, and upheld biblical morality, prepared a training manual for clergy, wrote liturgy and popularized the Gregorian chant. But Gregory also established the dogmas of purgatory and the Mass. He encouraged the worship of relics (the remains of deceased Christians), and popularized unlikely legends about past believers. He glorified the history and held tradition equal with Scripture. Irresponsibly he described reckless symbolic lessons from the pages of the Bible. Gregory assumed broad civil control ruling most of Italy while enlisting an army. He ransomed captured individuals, collected taxes and supplied food and services to the poor. He turned the church into the state. Gregory became the father of the medieval papacy—with all the good and bad that that entailed.

God Bless.
