CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is TITUS 1:15

"A PERSON WHO IS PURE OF HEART SEES GOODNESS AND PURITY IN EVERYTHING"

All things are pure to the pure of heart display a principle proclaimed by Jesus himself. There are distinctions between the pure and the impure. Fellowship with God acts to clarify moral perception, but indulgences in evil make a fool of the powers of moral discrimination. If the mind is defiled, it cannot inform the conscience to warn and alert the person, for the conscience functions as a warning system, which God has designed.

Unbelievers tend to lay emphasis on outward appearance and judge others on the basis of their own external standard and have a moral perversion that has taken place in their whole being. Their minds and their rational nature that enable them to think and reflect on things both moral and spiritual, have become polluted, and their conscience has lost its ability to make correct moral judgements, leaving them unable to make true distinctions between good and evil. Living apart from God only produces and outward temporary change.

True purity lies not in adherence to non-moral external rites and regulations but in the inner purity of the regenerated heart. Those with pure hearts and minds become fruitful and useful to The Lord Jesus Christ. Right doctrine applied results in right thoughts and attitudes towards God, others and circumstances. True lasting pure changes of attitude is only possible when the heart is renewed by God's grace through The Holy Spirit. The sincere believer's conscience is not diluted or polluted, their heart is filled with light and their behaviour reflects it, but it once was darkened and full of pride and selfish desires.

Christians are purified before God by The Atoning Death of The Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour and Redeemer and are empowered by God's Holy Spirit to lead pure lives. Believers should focus on what Jesus said and did instead of observing rules that have no biblical support.

Jesus is The Great God and Saviour, The Redeemer

BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that after his wife Sarah had died, Abraham remarried and fathered six more children? These became the ancestors of other tribes that inhabited the Middle Eastern area. Abraham died at the age of 175 years, Sarah herself was aged 127 at the time of her death.

There is a Colouring In page of Abraham and Sarah, starting out for the land of Canaan at <http://www.tne.net.au/~abdaacts/sarah.html>

Archive A FEBRUARY EVENT-Born in 296 to Christian parents in Egypt, Athanasius was ordained to the ministry just as a heretic named Arius was teaching that Jesus Christ was not divine. Christ, said Arius and his followers the Arians, was created higher than angels but inferior to the Father. A church council in Nicaea in 325 settled the issue, and Athanasius strongly agreed with the council's decision. Jesus is God. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are all divine —three existing in One God. God, he believed, became a man and died to provide our forgiveness. Soon he became bishop of Alexandria and was ordered to allow Arians to join his church. Athanasius refused. The Arians had him exiled in 339, and he spent the next several years in Rome, where his teaching attracted crowds and his writings, an eager audience. He returned to his church in 346. Thousands welcomed him, the city ablaze with torches, and his enemies retreated. But only briefly. On February 9, 356, as he led midnight worship, his opponents stormed the church. Athanasius slipped out a side door and escaped to the Egyptian desert. He was later restored to his church, only to be exiled a fourth time. But he soon returned and ministered until his death at age 77. Seventeen of his 45 years of ministry had been away from his congregation. But today we owe enormous gratitude to Athanasius. He devoted his difficult life to protecting standard doctrine and to defending the faith that God once for all gave to his people.

God Bless.
