This month's coloured attachment scripture is 1 PETER 1:4(a)

"GOD HAS RESERVED FOR HIS CHILDREN THE PRICELESS GIFT OF ETERNAL LIFE"

The gift of Eternal Life can not be earned but received as a gift from God. It is the state of being permanently with God, which begins in this life and will be consummated at the time of the resurrection of believers. This eternal glory is the inheritance of every believer.

Eternal life is an endless life and a quality of life. God is the source and giver of Eternal Life, which comes through Jesus Christ. Eternal life is a believer's present possession and is experienced now. The receiving of The Holy Spirit is a sign of the new life and future hope. Eternal Life is the life to come, being with Christ forever for believers. It is a certain hope and confidence in God's truthful and faithful promises.

The eternal promise cannot decay and is divinely preserved and kept for the believer. Not only are believer born again into an inheritance of Eternal Life but to a promise of it being divinely guarded. Knowing God in this unique way is sharing the inheritance of Jesus Christ. It is knowing and enjoying all of God's blessings. Eternity is limitless time over which God is supreme and it is the believer's home and inheritance in The Messiah's Eternal Kingdom.

+ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Jesus said the Kingdom of Heaven is like a royal wedding feast? He gave a description of festive joy which characterises the Kingdom of Heaven. His main purpose was to reveal the everlasting benefits of The Truth, excellence, abundance, including peace and expectation.

There is a Colouring In Page of The parable Jesus told which centres around the invitation and marriage of The King's son.

A NOVEMBER EVENT-Charles H. Mason was born outside Memphis to freed slaves. His mother prayed sincerely that her son dedicated himself to God. When Charles was 12, yellow fever infection broke out . The Masons packed their belongings and quickly moved to Arkansas, where they became resident farmers on marshy agricultural lands. The plague spread inland and harmed young Charles with major chills and fever. His death seemed certain. But early one Sunday morning, the glory of God appeared to Charles and was instantly healed by the divine presence. He got out of bed and walked outside. There under the morning skies, he prayed and praised God for his healing, renewing his commitment to God. His mother was astonished to find his bed empty. She discovered him outdoors, skipping and shouting, "Glory to God! Hallelujah! Praise His Holy Name!" C.H. Mason grew up to become a preacher, but his holiness message irritated fellow Baptists. Pondering on 1 Thessalonians 2:14, a name came to mind, The Church of God in Christ. Mason began to seek like-minded believers. In 1907, at the Azusa Street Revival in Los Angeles, Mason received the baptism of the Holy Spirit. He returned home with dramatic zeal, and the young denomination was reorganized and enflamed. The Church of God in Christ was the first major denomination to emerge from the excitement of Azusa Street, and by Mason's death on November 17, 1961, it was among America's largest Pentecostal denominations.

God Bless.
