This month's coloured attachment scripture is JAMES 1:17

"WHATEVER IS GOOD AND PERFECT COMES TO US FROM GOD, THE CREATOR OF ALL LIGHT AND HE SHINES FOREVER WITHOUT CHANGE OR SHADOW"

God's nature, character, His plans and purposes are unchangeable. Gifts from Above are perfect because they come from God, The Father, who is the Designer of all the heavenly bodies which give light to the earth, but unlike like them, He does not change. He is committed to His unchanging principles; they are constant, as He is constant.

God is not passive or remote from His Creation but actively involved in all that He has made. His same consistent purpose can be seen throughout His Word.

There is no possibility of change in the purposes of The Godhead. Unlike the moon, planet and stars of His Creation, God does not change. Our light on earth is from the sun, cast shadows that change quickly, but the Light of His Truth and The Light of His Holiness remain constant.

All God's perfect good gifts and qualities are made available for the benefit of the whole world. God's actions demonstrate His good gifts, His people can rely on His goodness and He works for good in any unfavourable circumstances. God's perfect unchanging loyalty is true to His name, His Word and His character.

Instead of being a giver of temptation God is the giver of every good and perfect gift. God's goodness rules out that God would be a destructive influence against His own people. God cannot think of evil, to send evil for He is good and perfect and cannot entice people to do evil in His sight.

★ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Eve, being the product of a divine creation, was as a complete, perfect woman who was never a child, or a daughter? The first female ever born into the world was Eve's first daughter. Eve, then, was not born. She was created out of Adam, fashioned out of a bone taken from his side, shaped out of man, she became his counterpart and companion. Having existed in God's thought, Eve was taken from Adam's flesh, where as he was created from the dust of the ground.

A SEPTEMBER EVENT-Her name, Pandita Pamabai, is unfamiliar to many today. Her father was a Brahmin priest. In 1858, Pandita was born. Her father determined to give her an education and by the time she was 12, Pandita had memorized 18,000 Sanskrit verses and had become fluent in various languages. But the family encountered mounting debts, then hunger. Pandita's father and mother died of starvation. Pandita set off across India, sleeping in the open, suffering from cold, eating berries. She began doubting her father's gods; and finally in Calcutta, she learned of Jesus Christ. Educated women were a novelty in India, and Pandita began lecturing, seeking to raise the standard of life for women. Traveling to England and America, she was baptized. She also studied mathematics and medicine in Western universities; and she sought financial support for a home for child-widows in India. In the late 1880s she returned to India and opened the Mukti (Salvation) Mission. It was crowded by hundreds of desperate girls. Pandita and her workers dug wells, planted trees, tilled the land, and preached the gospel. Hundreds became disciples of Christ and thousands were rescued from starvation. After establishing schools to educate the girls, a church was built September 20, 1899. Her last years were spent translating the Bible into Marathi. She fell ill and she died, having just finished the last page.

God Bless.
