" BUT GROW IN SPIRITUAL STRENGTH "

The process of development is progress in The Kingdom of God. There are many symbols used for growth in The Bible to express personal belief and trust, such as seeds, plants and trees. Growth is not just in the area of faith and knowledge but also and important development in love. Believers are to pray for the spiritual growth and maturity for other members in God's Kingdom. Growth comes from God through discipleship, from basic teaching to mature thinking, exercising spiritual gifts and persevering in The Truth of Christ.

Pursuing spiritual maturity will lead to doctrinal stability. It is protection against false teachers and combats heretical teaching, which is helped by a good knowledge of the Scriptures, a must to live a true Christian life. Spiritual discipline helps a Christian's growth and development. It is something that all Christians should seek and commit themselves to continue throughout their life.

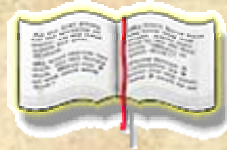

True knowledge of God is obedience, the right belief that results in right growth. By getting to know God better, Christians will be equipped to stand for The Truths of Christ in all circumstances. God gives spiritual strength along with His grace. There are many examples of spiritual growth in The Bible of God's servants.

A believer knows The Truth, therefore all error doctrines and theories should be left behind, preventing spiritual adultery and being led astray by deception, which would be the severest situation to happen to a believer. Jesus is The Believer's Strength, and The Source of All Knowledge.

★BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that The Parable of the Talents is the tragedy of wasted opportunity? The man travelling to a far country is Jesus and the servants represent professing believers. Servants are Christians, stewards of His grace. Christ gave His disciple's work to do until He returns. His journey to a far country is the Lord's departure and Ascension into heaven. The service of His disciples is reviewed at his return about the faithful use or unfaithful misuse of Christ's gifts.

A FEBRUARY EVENT-Jeanne d’Arc.SAINT OR SOURCERESS? The French called her a godsend; the English burned her as a witch. Joan was raised in a poor farming family in Champagne during the Hundred Years’ War when England was battling for control of France. When Joan was 13, she had the first of many extraordinary experiences, hearing voices accompanied by blazing light. The saints, she believed, were charging her to save France. She set out to see the Dauphin (Prince). He attempted to disguise himself, but Joan wasn’t fooled, she told him, that he was to be anointed and crowned in the city of Reims. The young man listened, and gave Joan an army. She led her forces to a remarkable victory, freeing the city of Orleans. Soon she accompanied the Dauphin to Reims where he was crowned King Charles VII. She was then captured by the English and stood trial for witchcraft on February 21, 1431, before an English church court. Her visions were pronounced “false and diabolical” and she was declared “heretical and offensive.” She was led to the Place du Vieux-Marche and burned at the stake. Her body was consumed by the flames; But her death inspired the French to recapture Paris and to drive the English from their country. Urged by Charles, Pope Callixtus III declared Joan innocent of witchcraft in 1456. She became a patron saint of France.
