This month's coloured attachment scripture is ISAIAH 30:18

"THE LORD IS FAITHFUL TO HIS PROMISES"

Security in God's promises can be assured of by His capabilities. When a situation looks hopeless, turn to God. Believers can trust and rely upon Him to be faithful to keep His Word. He is faithful and will not abandon His promises made. After repentance or justice, there is always the Love and Mercy of God.

God's people are assured of His love for them. The Lord will bountifully supply for the needs of His people. Do not rely on anyone or anything to be faithful except God, The Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is the ultimate evidence of God's faithfulness to His promises. God's people experience the blessings of His grace and the fulfilment of His good purposes for them.

God wants to bless those who come to Him. God wants to be His people's Teacher, Guide, Giver, Healer and Defender. He desires to be gracious to His people and pour out His goodness upon them. God's faithfulness is known through His fulfilled promises and His faithfulness is revealed to those who are faithful to Him.

God is perfect in His loyalty and He is consistent in being true to His name, His character and His Word. God will continue to show His grace to those who remain true to Him. Christ fulfilled the Prophecies of Isaiah, in His Saving Work of Christ, His Sacrifice, His Character, Atonement, Complete Redeemer, Servant and King, and as Everlasting Father.

★ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Lot, and his family had been spared from under the wrath of God because of Abraham's intercessory prayer? Lot was a member of the City of Sodom's ruling council, as a judge and was warned about the coming harm and given a chance to escape with the help of God's messengers. Lot's wife herself, was very hesitant about leaving her home and material possessions. Her heart had become attached to the lifestyle the city had provided.

There is a Colouring In Page of looking back at the destruction of Sodom at <http://www.tne.net.au/~abdaacts/lotswife.html>

A MARCH EVENT-George Wishart of Pitarrow, Scotland. was eager to both learn and teach. He believed that God's way of salvation was through the finished work of Christ alone. Those Reformation beliefs put him at risk. In 1544 he began preaching in Dundee from the book of Romans. Archbishop Beaton harshly sought to repress Protestants, and Wishart's arrest grew more certain and on the morning of March 1, 1546, Wishart was led to the stake. He was then strangled and his body burned to ashes. His death enraged all of Scotland, and within two months Archbishop Beaton was assassinated.. Many vowed not to rest till Scotland was Protestant. It proved a costly vow, for they were soon imprisoned on galley ships, chained to the oars with a whip to their backs, labouring to exhaustion with no hope of release. Some were eventually freed, and in years to come Protestantism took Scotland by storm, provoking rulers, inciting riots, demanding change. The Scots kept inspired for years to come, and the Reformation at last succeeded in their land.

God Bless.
