CHOSEN BIBLICAL Old Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is SONG OF SOLOMON 2:17

" MY BELOVED IS MINE AND I AM HIS "

Love is in the nature of God Himself, shown in His Word and by action shown in the death of Jesus Christ on The Cross. Love comes from God and is a fruit gift of The Holy Spirit. Love is used to describe God's caring nature for humanity. Commitment is of highest importance. The faithful Love of Christ was shown for all by His obedient suffering and death. It is the supreme quality of love.

This love caused Jesus Christ to leave His eternal glory to give His life for others. Jesus loves sinners and each believer. Jesus has compassion and love for the needy, for children and for His disciples. His love stems from God, The Father. He received The Father's love and reveals it to other. His love motivated Christians to live for God.

Believers have an individual covenant relationship with Jesus Christ that allows no intrusion. The Church is The Bride of Christ and is built on mutual love, which also affirms the truth of oneness. Because love is a powerful expression, the contract relationship is not to be regarded casually.

God demonstrated the nature of love and His Word defines the direction for human love.

Christ is The Perfect Personal Love and The Lover.

SOLOMON

Christ is portrayed as Perfect Personal Love, The Lover.

★ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Noah was born and reared during the most crucial period of all time in the history of mankind so far? The depravity of mankind had reached a point that God was grieved in His heart. In spite of the evil abounding around him, Noah was a righteous man, a preacher of God's goodness and there was great hope and a future for Noah and his family.

There is a Colouring In page of Noah patiently waiting for the world wide flood level to recede

A JANUARY EVENT-Born three centuries after Christ into a wealthy Christian home in Caesarea of Cappadocia (Turkey). His parents sent Basil to the finest schools in Constantinople and Athens, and he finished with marks of distinction. As a Christian, Basil craved a quiet life of study, prayer, and writing. He settled along the bank of the Iris River on the family estate, preaching to and helping the poor. Emperor Julian the Apostate, a fierce opponent of Christianity, tried to recruit him as advisor. Basil declined. However he did publicly preach and write brilliant messages on the nature of Jesus Christ and the composition of the Trinity. In 370, Basil proved himself a gifted bishop who organized the ministries of the church. Using his own fortune, Basil founded a hospital for the care of lepers. He was a kind man, personally treating the diseased. Basil's complex of churches, schools, hospitals, hostels, monasteries, and almshouses outside Caesarea became a town within itself called Basiliad. Exhausted before his fiftieth year, Basil died on January 1st 379, he was mourned deeply.

God Bless.
