 CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

1:18

This month's coloured attachment scripture is REVELATION

"I AM THE LIVING ONE, I WAS DEAD AND BEHOLD I AM ALIVE
FOREVER AND EVER"

Jesus returned to heaven in order to establish His Kingdom, having completed His mission and work amongst mankind, so that many may follow Him. In contrast to the dead idols and gods of men, Jesus Christ processes life in Himself, in His basic nature. He conquered death and Death has no control over Him. He has absolute authority over death and the grave.

The glory of Jesus Christ reflects the glory of God The Father and He is referring to His Eternal existence and His absolute control. Jesus Christ has triumphed over and has disarmed all the powers of evil.

Believers share in His victory through belief in Who He is. Jesus is victorious over temptation, sin, over satanic evil spirits, all powers and authorities in both the spiritual and physical realm and over death. His victory is of great assurance for believers.

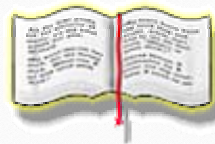

Jesus Christ, The Living One never changes. It was through the Death and Resurrection of Jesus that gave Him the victory. He is the one who has the Keys, for the Christian, they know they share Christ's inheritance and blessings including a glorified body.

🌟 BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Jesus wants people to deny selfishness, haughtiness, boasting and self-ego to seek humility and meekness, so that God can lift them up? Self efforts lead nowhere, yet by meekness, acknowledging God's Sovereignty a person is exalted by God for eternity with his sins forgiven. Jesus taught that the regretful sinner who sincerely seeks God's mercy will receive it. God exalts the humble, and all believers are to be humble before Him.

Archive A FEBRUARY EVENT-On February 24, 1208 Francis of Assisi attended Mass in the little church of Saint Mary of the Angels. The priest read from Matthew's Gospel, chapter 10: "Jesus sent out the twelve apostles with these instructions: You received without paying, now give without being paid. Don't take along any gold, silver, or copper coins. And don't carry a traveling bag or an extra shirt or sandals." These verses so moved Francis that he resolved to become an wandering evangelist like the original apostles. He shared his burden with a few followers, to wander through the country preaching the gospel and attending those with needs. Francis put his thoughts into writing and traveled to Rome, seeking endorsement from Pope Innocent III. The pope hesitated as the life seems too hard and rough, but eventually agreed. Within eight years Francis's order numbered 5,000 men, and by the time he died from tuberculoid leprosy in his mid-forties, he was so beloved that his followers feared the masses would steal his body. So they entombed him beneath the altar of the Basilica of Saint Francis under a slab of granite, gravel, ten welded bands of iron, a 190-pound grill, and a 200-pound rock. They buried him so well, in fact, that his coffin was not discovered until the 19th century. His followers continued his mission, and today the Franciscan Order in all its branches is the largest religious order in the Roman Catholic Church.

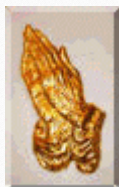

God Bless.
