CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is 1 JOHN 5:12(a)

"WHOEVER HAS GOD'S SON HAS LIFE"

The nature of spiritual life with Christ is a new life, abundant life, eternal life and true freedom. This life unites believers to Jesus Christ as children of God and brings people to seek after the things of God. A new life has been made possible. Life is in Jesus; He is the source of Eternal Life. He is the Living One who has life in Himself. He is the basis of life and is the Sovereign over all life.

When someone accepts The Truth of Jesus Christ, that He came from heaven and is The Son of The Living God, who came to the earth for the salvation of mankind, that person receives Life. Human beings have true spiritual life only because of the redeeming work done in Jesus Christ, and is a foretaste of life that believers will enjoy in the new heaven and earth. Christ out of Christianity leaves nothing, Christianity is to be Christ-centred.

This Gift of Eternal Life, through Jesus Christ, The Lord is a present privilege and ownership, not a possession to receive at sometime later. A believer possesses eternal life now, which is life of the highest quality. To have life in Jesus means victory over spiritual death and ultimately physical death. Those without Jesus as their Lord are without life; He is a person who lives in believers who are to enable His love to stay in them. Spiritual life begins with spiritual birth.

CHRIST AS SEEN IN THE BOOK OF 1

JOHN

Jesus is The Believer's Life and He is seen in His Present Day Ministry as The Righteous Advocate.

★ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that there is a final and absolute separation of all mankind into two distinct groups? All live together in the world until the end of the age. The parable of The Wheat and The Tares (weeds) illustrates an aspect of the truth. Those who have responded to the good news of God's present reign in Jesus' Christ and those who have not.

A MAY EVENT-Giffordgate, Scotland, was an ardently Catholic village containing several churches, two monasteries, an abbey—and a farming couple named Knox who reared a child named John. The lad excelled at Haddington Grammar School where his teacher proclaimed him the most brilliant pupil he had ever had. John entered the University of Glasgow, then St. Andrews University, where Reformation concepts wrenched at his Catholic heart. Knox spent the next 20 years as a village priest and college lecturer. Then one day he realised his salvation was by faith in Christ alone. Because of his Reformation ideas he alternated between flight and imprisonment (once chained to the oars of a galley ship). He finally settled down in relative safety on the Continent where he studied, wrote, discussed, and kept an eye on his native land. In 1559 he returned. He landed on May 2, 1559 to find a nation on the edge of disorder. Mary of Guise, queen regent and mother of young Mary, Queen of Scots, was railing against Protestants. Civil war was threatening. Knox's presence and preachments inspired the people and the government fought Protestants sternly for twelve months when the queen regent died. The Treaty of Edinburgh temporarily ended the conflict, and the Reformation took hold. More storms lay ahead, and the aging Knox managed to lead a bloodless revolution in Scotland and establish the faith of a nation.
