- CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is JUDE 1:24

"TO HIM WHO IS ABLE TO KEEP YOU FROM FALLING, AND TO PRESENT YOU BEFORE HIS GLORIOUS PRESENCE WITHOUT FAULT AND WITH GREAT JOY. TO THE ONLY GOD AND SAVIOUR, BE GLORY, MAJESTY, POWER AND AUTHORITY THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD, BEFORE ALL AGES NOW AND FOREVERMORE"

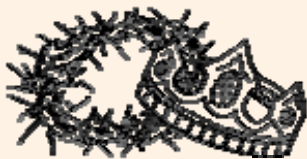

The verse quoted is called a doxology, which is words that offer praise to God for His work and is a benediction, God is the Creator and Redeemer of mankind who revealed Himself in Jesus Christ.

Scripture endorses God's total reliability and trustworthiness. God is the Father of all believers. God's knowledge ensures that He knows those who are His. God's nature, deeds and faithfulness are incomparable for which He deserves all praise. All His deeds are great, His love, His mercy and His kindness makes Him unique. God is perfect, holy, righteously active and His attributes are expressed through His actions. His perfect loyalty is true to His Name and His Word.

God is fully able to keep those who put their trust in Him, and keep them faithful for He guarantees He will bring those who do rely on Him into His Presence, and give them everlasting joy. God bestows upon His believing people, righteousness through Jesus Christ, shielding them from His wrath, and forgiving them because of His Grace.

The promises of God are a reminder of the authority of God. Christians will stand before God. Glory to God can only be given properly through Jesus Christ who is The Preserver and Keeper of the believer.

CHRIST AS SEEN IN THE BOOK OF JUDE

Jesus is The Preserver and Keeper of the Believer.

★ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that just as Israel, an infant nation went down into Egypt, so the Child Jesus went there? As Israel was led by God out of Egypt, also His Son Jesus. As Israel was led by God out of Egypt, also His Son Jesus, the fulfilment of extended prophecy-of Hosea 11:1.

A NOVEMBER EVENT-During medieval days, the pope reigned as the most powerful figure on earth, a superior director combining religious and political authority in one gilded role. But between 1,300 and 1,500 political leaders in England and France began defying the papal celebrant. The harshest conflict arose when troops of France's King Philip burst into the bedroom of 86-year-old Pope Boniface and replaced him Frenchman, Pope Clement V and moved the papal residence to France. Thus began a 72-year period of six successive French popes, all of whom chose to live in France, rather than in Rome. This eventually led to the election of two popes, one chosen by the Italian division and the other by the French. This lasted for 39 years, each pope having his own College of Cardinals, each claiming to be the true vicar of Christ. The majority of cardinals from both camps agreed to end the split by deposing both popes and electing a new one. When neither of the old popes resigned, the number increased to three. The absurd spectacle of three popes led to the Council of Constance convening on November 5, 1414—the largest church council in history and the most important since the Council of Nicaea in 325. The council met for three years and at length persuaded one of the popes to resign and deposed the other two and chose a new leader. But the harm to the Vatican's prestige had been shaped, paving the way for the Reformation.

God Bless.
