CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is John 3:6

“THE HOLY SPIRIT GIVES NEW LIFE FROM HEAVEN”

The Indwelling of The Holy Spirit results in recognisable Christ likeness and producing the Fruits of The Spirit. The Holy Spirit dwells within in Christ and His believers. Wisdom and insight are received with a guarantee of life, assuring believers that they belong to God.

This indwelling of The Spirit being is a once-for-all gift at the moment of salvation. Public testimonies are aided. Moral laws are obeyed. This is done by supernatural ability by the power of The Holy Spirit.

The Baptism of The Holy Spirit is a divine act of inclusion with The Holy Spirit whereby He instigates Christian believers into a conscious relationship and spiritual union with The Glorified Christ. This immersion and absorption of The Spirit was promised by Christ to equip, authorise and enable believers for sanctification and service. This baptism endowment is for all believers for their daily Christian living. Jesus promised believers power and authority, giving them the ability and capacity to be witnesses by their character and evangelising.

The Sealing of The Holy Spirit is God's protection on the lives of His people, marking them as His own and guarding them from the evil of the world and from the devil. Being sealed by The Spirit of God is a secure pledge and guarantee of redemption from sin, in addition to affirming a Christlike character and fully belonging to God. It is a binding contract as a mark of belonging.

★ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Lydia from Thyatira a Macedonian City, is the first recorded European convert from Judaism to Christianity? She was a Grecian independent, prominent and successful business woman who allowed the Greek believers to meet in her home. This was the first Christian church in Europe.

The circumstances of this occurrence is noted and a Colouring In Page is at <http://www.tne.net.au/~abdaacts/ly.html>

AN AUGUST EVENT-Count Nikolaus Ludwig von Zinzendorf, born in 1700, grew up in an environment of Bible reading and hymn-singing. He married a Christian countess, and the two began allowing Protestant refugees to camp on their German estate. A Moravian community named Herrnhut soon developed. Count Zinzendorf returned from a trip to Copenhagen with reports of slaves in the West Indies having no one to tell them of Christ. On August 18, 1732, in an extraordinary, emotion-packed service, hymns were sung that night as the congregation bade two men them good-bye and Godspeed. They sailed from Copenhagen and arrived on St. Thomas and a planter took them in. Their first Sunday saw them beginning their search for souls, preaching to a small group of slaves, several of whom soon followed Christ. They ministered to those suffering from malaria, and reinforcements began arriving from Herrnhut. Though many died, the Moravian tide of missionaries continued—to Greenland, to Lapland and Georgia, to Surinam, to Guinea, to South Africa, to Algeria, to North American Indians, to Ceylon and Romania and Constantinople. From 1732 to 1742, more than 70 Moravian missionaries were sent from Herrnhut, a community of 600. It was the beginning of Protestant missions.

God Bless.
