➡ CHOSEN BIBLICAL Old Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is MICAH 7:9(b)

"GOD WILL BRING ME OUT OF DARKNESS
INTO THE LIGHT
AND I WILL SEE HIS GOODNESS"

After repentance, there should be anticipation to see the restoration work of God. Believers can be confident of God's favourable actions on their behalf. Believers are redeemed from all forms of bondage and oppression God personally renews His people. Restoration is achieved through the redeeming work of Jesus Christ. Through Christ there is available restoration to health, life, sight, spiritual blindness to spiritual sight, spiritual death to spiritual life. God brings to His people regeneration as part of the process of redemption.

The transformation by God of the lives of His people leads to illumination. People experience an inward change and live obedient lives for The Glory of God, they delight in worshipping God, generous giving of self to others and are zealous for the work of God.

Spiritual life is brought to those who were dead in sin. This work originates in God the Father, made possible by the death and resurrection of Jesus, by hearing the Word of God. The Holy Spirit activates the Word of God. The results are entry into the Kingdom of God, a new holiness in life and love for others, victory of a sinful pattern of life.

➡ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Anna, was the only prophet of God to be recorded for hundreds of years, following the Old Testament books and was the first recorded prophet of the New Testament? Anna gave thanks to God, for Jesus. God had raised up this devoted prophetess to be the first person to announce to others that Christ had come, and that she had seen Him as a baby at the Temple.

A Colouring Page of Anna who lived at The Temple in Jerusalem meeting the Baby Jesus is at <http://www.tne.net.au/~abdaacts/anna.html>

A JANUARY EVENT-Decius Trajan became ruler of Rome in 249. Barbarians were threatening northern borders, and morale was low. Decius, blamed Christians for the weakness and unwieldiness of his empire. The emperor had a strategy and arrest warrants went out across the empire for prominent Christians, igniting the first empire-wide attack on the church. On January 20, 250. Fabian, the nineteenth head bishop (Pope) of Rome, was arrested, tried, and became the first to die. Few records remain of Fabian's life and ministry but he improved the organization of the Roman church both above and below ground. He divided the city into seven congregations with a deacon in charge of each section, and he directed work on the catacombs. In the catacombs his body was later buried. Decius died the next year, but the church he persecuted continues strongly.
