CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is JOHN 14:12,13

"I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father "

Jesus' disciples are to believe that He is in The Father and The Father is in Him because of His works. Jesus asks people to believe this because of His miracles as evidence. He said those who do believe would do greater things than He Himself had done. Greater works are not based on human achievement.

The only way disciples of Jesus would be able to do greater works was by Jesus sending The Holy Spirit to indwell believers, when He returned to The Father. The power and strength of The Holy Spirit is only available to believers. Believers will not be doing the works but works will be done through them. The Holy Spirit will do the works of Jesus and The Father. Just as The Father did the works Jesus did, The Father will work through believers.

Jesus Christ had performed truly impressive miracles during His earthly ministry, but He said greater works would glorify the Father through the gospel preaching of His Spirit-filled followers. Greater works are the acceptance into God's Kingdom, those who respond to the announcement of the good news of salvation through Christ, and the testifying to the Truth about Jesus, as they witness growth in the church.

Even though Jesus talks about miracles of great works, salvation is a greater miracle, for a soul to be eternally saved is far glorious than temporary miraculous works of healing, or food or raising the dead. A servant of God is to bring salvation to the world, to obtain a great harvest into God's Kingdom. Jesus' ministry and works continue on earth on a wider scale throughout the nations of the world..

★ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that prophetess Huldah participated in the biggest spiritual revival of her Nation? This woman is in the ranks among that of Deborah and Miriam as prophetesses for their Nation. The priests turned to a woman for God's Word when many men of God were also advisors to the King. This seems to nullify the idea that women cannot be of use in ministry.

An expose on Huldah's life and a Colouring Page showing the men of God consulting Huldah is at <http://www.tne.net.au/~abdaacts/huldah.html>

AN APRIL EVENT- P. J. Spener, burdened for his church, opened his home for prayer and Bible reading. That simple act sparked a spiritual renewal across Germany, since called Pietism. The Pietist movement swept over continental Europe, emphasizing inner spirituality, home meetings, mission involvement, hymn singing, and social work (particularly with orphans). Reaching into Scandinavia, Pietism touched 25-year-old Hans Nielsen Hague. Hans had grown up in rural Norway, learning many crafts from his industrious parents. He was a skilled cabinetmaker, carpenter, blacksmith, and beekeeper. He had also known the words of Scripture and the songs of the hymnbook since infancy. On April 5, 1796, as he worked outdoors he was abruptly caught up in a dramatic experience. His mind felt suddenly exalted and his heart overflowed with God's Spirit. The love of Christ blazed in his soul. He sensed a deep hunger for Bible study and a compelling urge to proclaim the gospel. Hans ran home and shared his experience with his family, then with his church set out to tell others, travelling for eight years and 10,000 miles throughout Norway by foot, ski, and horse. He preached to crowds large and small, emphasizing repentance, conversion, and true revival. His message sparked renewal everywhere. Occasionally local pastors, fearing his zeal and popularity, opposed him, and he was arrested ten times. But bishops and pastors eventually thanked God for his ministry. Having finished his preaching tour, Hans used his position in the business world to spread his message there.

God Bless.
