CHOSEN BIBLICAL New Testament SCRIPTURE-

This month's coloured attachment scripture is MATTHEW 10:8

“freely you have received, freely give”

As disciples of Christ minister to others they are to remember that God The Father has overwhelmed them with blessings and that they too can liberally bless others, especially with love, caring and time to those who need ministering. This is a principle that Jesus set forth to guide the actions of His followers.

It is also to be used as the principle for the mission of proclaiming the gospel, to gratefully and freely declare restoration to the souls of those who were dead in sin and separated from God. Believers are received into the Kingdom with out fee or cost as it is given freely and is to be received as a gift.

In proclaiming the gospel of free grace for the healing and saving the souls of humankind, Christ's ambassadors are to offer and extend to others entry to God's Kingdom on the same basis. Servants of Christ are the ambassadors of free peace with God to wherever they are sent.

+ BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that after David was anointed to be future king, he as a young man slew the Philistine giant, Goliath with only a stone in his shepherd's sling? Both the Philistine army and the Israelite army had assembled for war. Sometimes issues of war were decided through combat between each armies chosen champions. The Philistine camp had chosen Goliath who was over nine feet tall. David saw that all in the Israelite army were scared of Goliath.

A Colouring In Page of the slaying of Goliath is at <http://www.tne.net.au/~abdaacts/goliath.html>

God Bless.
