"I AM WITH YOU AND WILL PROTECT YOU WHEREVER YOU GO"

Unlike God, people are restricted to their own territory and regions but The Living God is not confined or limited by boundaries of any kind. This verse is confident response that reaffirms the Lord is the helper of believers. There is safety and guidance with God. He personally guarantees that His presence is with His people. God is the ultimate protector who watches over and helps believers from oppression, exploitation, spiritual and physical attacks. Scripture does indicate that His people can expect to face persecution, persistent harassment and hardship from individuals and authorities in certain situations on account of faithfulness to their belief in the truths of God.

Each believer must establish their own relationship with Him. It is reassuring to know God is concerned about His people individually. He is the One True Sovereign over all that exists and reveals His person and nature. God's initiative highlights His relationships with humankind and He exercises His unlimited freedom to provide for His creation, pledging His care and faithfulness. He will not leave them. He has promised peace and joy within something that can only come from Him and not of the world.

God proves He is faithful by willingly keeping His promises, which is one of the great themes throughout the Bible. God's promise of protection assures believers that God is sovereign over the past and the future. True freedom comes in living under His care.

Sovereignly, God looks after His people by helping them with His presence within. Sending His angels to protect and by the means of using other people. Believers should request God for His protection and have the right outlook

 + BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE- Did you know that Mary Magdalene was not a prostitute? Mary was a disciple who travelled with Jesus and helped support His ministry. The perception that Mary of Magdala as a prostitute is blamed upon Pope Gregory The Great in 591 when he falsely identified her with an unnamed sinful woman mentioned in the Gospels. 1400 years passed and the Roman Catholic church officially corrected its error and made her a saint!!!

A DECEMBER EVENT-Marcus and Narcissa Whitman were missionaries to native Americans in the American Northwest. Narcissa became the first white woman to cross the country and she was awed by the splendor of God's creation. After traveling 2,000 rugged miles, the Whitmans reached Oregon, settling down among the fierce Cayuse Indians. Marcus built a hut for himself and his pregnant wife, and on December 10, 1835, they moved in. Daughter Alice was born three months later. Marcus and Narcissa worked hard building a mission compound, developing agriculture, treating the sick, and sharing their faith by ministering selflessly to orphans, to the diseased, to the disinterested, and to whoever would listen. Several Indians died during an outbreak of measles ten years later, and the missionaries were blamed. Late on a dark fall day, the mission was attacked by a band of Cayuse. Marcus and Narcissa died by tomahawk, with a dozen coworkers. However the gospel had been planted on the American frontier by the couple willing to remain faithful through severe circumstances. They had persevered, seeing him who is invisible.
